Meeting Conducted by: Natalie Edwards

Thought: Corine Cook

Pledge: Jeff Peterson

Minutes Approved: April Owens and Corine Cook

Treasury Report: By boundary not school choice the number of students going to other schools will need to be calculated and a check from OME to the other schools will be paid to the PTA.

Julie Ward: Huge thank you for SLC dinners from the teachers. Janet has requested that we get all dates on the calendar for the rest of the year.

Natalie Edwards: Issues Conference is March 1st, Brad Wilcox will be key speaker. Tuesday Mar 14th will be "The fight the New Drug" program at 7 pm. Both at WHS.

Need a white Ribbon Chair Person for next year to handle Internet Safety awareness.

Amber Overton: Items that were stolen have been trickling in this week. Children who stole will not be allowed into the book fair. We need a person at the door and a person at the toy area during recess and lunch kids can only come shop if they have money.

April Owens: Box Tops will be collected Feb 17th. There will be one more collection at the end of the year before they expire in the summer.

April Owens will also be handling Field Day, Lisa will get all files to April. Lisa H and Jill K. will also help with field day. Should we do ribbons per class or divide school into two colors?

There will be no Jump Rope for Heart this year, due to testing.

OME Testing will be May 8-19
