Principal Discher: Wants to do a year end balloon release, each class will have a color. School ends at 12:20, so will do it at about 12:05, each child will attach a paper that states what they are most proud of from the year. Will be playing I want to see you be brave during the balloon release. Will need help from the PTA blowing up the balloon, will get tanks from Lee's. Will have about 550 balloons.

The end of the year of awards, will be done by class this year. Each will be a half hour at a time. There will be 12 large prizes to give out, three per grade level.

For dual immersion, will be hiring from 4th grade and will be going international to look for the teacher. Will need to help them get settled.

Natalie Edwards: The funds will be distributed percentage will go to JR Smith to Daniels. The money will be paid after the books are closed, should give the checks by the first part of August. The budget for next year will need to take it in account.

Julie Ward: Huge thank you from all the teachers for teacher appreciation week. They also love everything that has been done for field day so far. Emergency buckets waters will be used for field day.

Field Day: The baskets will need to be distributed to every class before field day. The teachers were given some packets at the teachers meeting. Pretty well staffed, just need a few more people to help. There will be some all day volunteers so lunch will need to be provided. Ribbons for each class, wondering about the blank ribbons and adding each kids name and the event written on the back. There will be a good variety of awards.
