Prinicpal Discher:

Talked about starting book orders in each classroom to go home.

Worked on a new preparedness plan, if something were to happen at the school. Talked about changing the location of the emergency buckets. The only time there would be an interior lock down, would be a short amount of time. Discussed changing up the emergency preparedness.

Commented on the Boohoo/Yahoo and received from great comments on doing it next year

Corine Cook:

Back to school night, Parents loved not having to meet in the gym – we are almost at 100% teacher enrollment for PTA. Green Ribbon Week is coming up October 2-6 and Walk to School Day Oct 4, Crossing Guard Appreciation Day that week

SLC Conference Dinners – April Morden will direct the dinners. Oct 4 & 5

Amanda Noyce – Fun Run

Will need to get a map of where the volunteers will go. We will need a couple parents to direct though the cobblestone area. We will be filling up baskets on Thursday with water bottles. Raffle prizes will be displayed on Monday in the office. Teacher incentives based on participation of each student, using scholastic dollars as the incentive, the goal is 100% participation.

Amber Overton:

Scholastic Dollars: $12,261 - Three book fairs – Projected amount $12,800 for this year
Christmas books for this year, Literacy rewards, fun run rewards
$200 per teacher for each classroom and an extra $50 for 100% participation for fun run
